Just for noting

Sometimes the proceeds ultimately obtained in matters funded by LAF will be far lower than anticipated and/or see the claimant receive little to no money 'in their pocket'. In these instances, solicitors may ask LAF to agree to a reduction or waiver of LAF's 'uplift'. This will be a decision entirely at the discretion of LAF, but factors considered would include the following:

- The size of the proceeds and the ways in which they will be disbursed, including the 'in pocket' amount for the claimant (including any reduction in the fees charged by solicitors/counsel).
- The reason/s the matter was not capable of a better resolution.
